On Thursday, May
3rd, the Class of 2007 boarded buses
with no idea of
their destination.
After four years at
Wheaton College,
these students were
about to graduate,
but before they do,
they must experience

Congratulations, Jonathan Ritter-Roderick!

We are all so very proud of you. May your many talents take you to realms that you could never imagine. Let everyone come to know the wonderful you.

We felt this quote from Amy Lowell was appropriate –

"Art is the desire of a man to express himself, to record the reactions of his personality to the world he lives in."

Go forward and express yourself in vivid colors to the world.

*All our love, happiness and success
for your creative future,*

Wheaton College

Class of 2007

Your four years at Wheaton College have been analagous with traveling the yellow brick road in search of the wizard, conquering its own versions of flying monkeys and wicked witches along the way. In the process, you have learned to appreciate what you've always possessed - your brains, your heart and your coarage. You are now ready to find your own place over the rainbow!

In the words of Dorothy, "the dreams that you dare to dream do come true."

Believe in yourself! I do.
Always and forever, Mom xxx

TO RICH AND FELLOW CLASSMATES
CONGRATULATIONS AND REMEMBER.....

Find something you love to do and you'll never have to work a day in your life....

The time to make friends is BEFORE you need them.

Unless you stick your neck out, you won't get your head above the crowd.

It's not how far you fall, but how high you bounce...

A man with push will pass a man with pull every time.

If you can't do great things, do small things in a great way!

Good Luck Class of 2007!      THE CHACE'S

Jen - You have made us so very proud,

And of course, we love you so very much!

Congratulations, Nicko

Keep up your wide-eyed, open-mouthed, curly approach to life. We're so glad your eyebrows came in. You'll just have to learn to live with the short waist.

Much, much love
From your weirdly proud family:
Mom, Dad, Maggie, Ghost of George, Stripey, Ghost of Happy, Gordita, and Felix (a.k.a Snake)

Kristin "Sam"

There is so much remaining in life for you. You are unique, talented, and have some great memories to cherish. There are still many places you will go; continue to succeed and enjoy a wonderful life. You have made us proud! Thank you!

Love,- Mom, Dad & Chadd

From Papa and for Tradition

IF—

If you can keep your head when all about you
Are losing theirs and blaming it on you,
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
But make allowance for their doubting too;
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
Or being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or being hated, don't give way to hating,
And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise:

If you can dream—and not make dreams your master;
If you can think—and not make thoughts your aim;
If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster
And treat those two impostors just the same;
If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken
Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken,
And stoop and build 'em up with worn-out tools:

If you can make one heap of all your winnings
And risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss,
And lose, and start again at your beginnings
And never breathe a word about your loss;
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
To serve your turn long after they are gone,
And so hold on when there is nothing in you
Except the Will which says to them: "Hold on!"

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with Kings—nor lose the common touch,
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
If all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run,
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And—which is more—you'll be a Man, my son!

-Rudyard Kipling

*We celebrate this, your great achievement, and we celebrate
you. Always play your own song, for it is a beautiful and unique one and will guide you to happiness, success, and a wonderful life.*

*Your future is unlimited, as is our love for you — Mom, Dad, Joel
and Jasper.*
